Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Terry Powell will retire December 30, 2006, after 36 years of service as an educator and principal;

Whereas, Terry has influenced the lives of students and staff at the Boxelder Job Corps, as well as the Pine Ridge Job Corps and the school system on the Pine Ridge Reservation; and,

Whereas, Terry was instrumental in establishing the Black Hills Forest High School, one of the first accredited high schools in the Job Corps system, and because of his efforts, hundreds of South Dakota's at-risk students have been able to complete their education and lead full and productive lives; and,

Whereas, Terry's dedication to education has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Terry Powell for 36 years of dedicated service to learning and touching so many young lives:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 18, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join his colleagues, friends and family as they recognize his commitment to a successful career and extend best wishes for a healthy and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
